

Kala Art Institute, September, 2017 - June 2018
Youth Art Programs, Teaching Artists
Part-time Temporary / On-Call

Kala Art Institute is currently accepting applications for Teaching Artists for our Artists-in-Schools programs. There are several part-time, project-based, paid positions which include:

- In-School Art Integration
- After School Visual Art Enrichment
- Art Making Field Trips
- Intersession Intensive Workshops

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop and implement curriculum in coordination with Kala's Director of Education and classroom teachers/ school administrators
- Lead all art projects
- Collaborate with teaching assistant(s) in some programs where available
- Prepare materials and supplies, manage daily set-up and clean-up
- Supervise students in afterschool programs
- Photograph/video students in action and document artwork
- Communicate with school contacts and Kala's administrative team in a timely manner

REQUIREMENTS

- Solid experience teaching visual art in a classroom environment or afterschool program
- Personal art practice or art education background
- Experience developing unique curricula that supports learning goals
- Materials procurement
- Desire to work with classroom teachers and or school administrators
- Commitment to consistent availability for the duration of your workshops
- Clear background check

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Cover letter detailing your teaching experience and what ages and media you prefer
- Current resume
- Images of your own artwork
- Images of your students' artwork

To apply, please send an e-mail to classes@kala.org including all materials listed above. All positions are part-time temporary or on-call. Not eligible for benefits. Open until filled.