Kala Art Institute
Youth Art Program Internship

Kala Art Institute’s Artists-in-Schools Program is currently accepting applications for two non-paid internship positions.

An internship at Kala Art Institute offers “hands on” experience working in a lively and stimulating environment in West Berkeley. Kala Art Institute's mission is to help artists sustain their creative efforts over time through its Artist-in-Residence and Fellowship Programs, and to increase appreciation of this work through exhibitions, public programming and educational efforts. Interns receive individual training in all aspects of public programming including art education instruction, program planning, marketing, and administrative procedures. The two positions offers a wide variety of tasks on any given day, from assisting a Teaching Artist in classrooms and after, installing an exhibition of student work, to organizing art supplies and materials, to writing copy material for marketing purposes, and photographing student artwork. There will also be some clerical and computer work.

The skills acquired in this internship may be applicable to other gallery and teaching professions. Although this position is unpaid, interns completing 100 hours of work will receive free enrollment in a Kala class of his/her choice. Check out our current offerings online http://kala.org/class/class.html.
