

Kala Art Institute Web Multimedia Production Internship

Kala Art Institute is currently accepting applications for one non-paid Web Multimedia Production internship position beginning immediately.

An internship at Kala Art Institute offers “hands on” experience working in a lively and stimulating artistic and creative environment in West Berkeley. Kala Art Institute's mission is to help artists sustain their creative efforts over time through its Artist-in-Residence and Fellowship Programs, and to increase appreciation of this work through exhibitions, public programming and educational efforts.

This internship will focus on producing video pieces from past and present Kala events to be used for promotion on our website, social networking sites, grant proposals, and for generating public interest in our programs. Interns will receive individualized training in various aspects of communications and marketing management. Interns will also learn a variety of tools across multiple platforms to broaden Kala’s outreach efforts and to develop new strategies of community and audience engagement.

The skills acquired in this internship may be applicable to other non-profit art and multimedia professions. Although this position is unpaid, interns completing 100 hours of work will receive free enrollment in a Kala class of his/her choice. Check out our current class offerings online: <http://kala.org/class/class.html>.
